Shigemi Inagaki Shihan began his aikido training under the tutelage of Founder Morihei Ueshiba. Following the founder's passing in 1969, he relocated to the Iwama Dojo to become the first uchideshi of Morihiro Saito Shihan. Inagaki Shihan accompanied Saito Shihan on his inaugural trip to the USA as his otomo in 1974. He currently instructs at the Founder's Dojo in Iwama—the birthplace of aikido, traveling both nationally and internationally to teach Traditional Aikido.
